TOOT YOUR LITTLE TOOTER.

By ED. C. BARROLL.

If you toot your little tooter and then lay aside your horn. In ten short days there's not a soul will know that you were born; The man who gathers pumpkins is the man who plows all day, And the man who keeps a-humping is the man who makes it pay.

The man who advertises with a short and sudden jerk Is the man who blames the editor because it didn't work; The man who gets the business has a long and steady pull, And keeps his local paper from day to day quite full.

He plans his advertising in a thoughtful sort of way. And keeps forever at it until he makes it pay; He has faith in all the future, can withstand a sudden shock, And like the man of scripture, plants his business on a rock.

If he can't write good copy, he employs a man who can, And the other fellow in his line is classed an "also ran." You can't fool people always-they've been a long time born, And most folks know the man is slow who tooteth not his horn. -Advertising World.

The Tee-Dec Want Ads. will toot your horn for you effectively at a cost of one cent a word.
